IMMIGRANTS: ANOTHER HALF A MILLION?

THE DECISION of the Labour Government to grant an amnesty to illegal immigrants could face us with a further influx of half a million. This is because each immigrant who entered illegally will now be allowed to bring in his dependants.

In 1970 the Asian immigrant leader, Mr. Praful Patel, declared that there were about 80,000 illegal immigrants here. Taking into account those that entered after 1970, and allowing five dependants for each, it would seem that the total number of new immigrants seeking to come to Britain will be well on the way to 500,000. Adding to these the Asian community which is being expelled from Kenya, it can be seen that Britain is now facing what could be one of the worst disasters in our history.

Mr. Martin Webster, National Activities Organiser of the National Front, described the Government's decision as "an appalling betrayal" of the British people. "Why did the Labour Party not announce its intentions before or during the recent General Election campaign, particularly in those areas most likely to be affected by an additional

A MILLION?

THE DECISION of the Labour Government to grant an amnesty to illegal immigrants could face us with a further influx of half a million. This is because each immigrant who entered illegally will now be allowed to bring in his dependants.

Mr. Martin Webster, National Activities Organiser of the National Front, described the Government's decision as "an appalling betrayal" of the British people. "Why did the Labour Party not announce its intentions before or during the recent General Election campaign, particularly in those areas most likely to be affected by an additional immigrant influx?"

Ordinary working people — who have traditionally looked to the Labour Party to protect their interests — will be the hardest hit by the new coloured invasion. There is already an acute housing shortage while education and welfare services in immigrant inundated districts are fast sliding into decline. Vast areas of our major cities are being reduced to Afro-Asian slums.

We did not fight two World Wars just to see Britain become a dumping ground for the surplus populations of Africa and Asia. The racial situation is already desperate and the time to act is now. Organise to fight back against the ruling Establishment! Join the National Front!

The man: Harold Wilson. The women: his Secretary, Marcia Williams and his wife Mary.

THE LABOUR PARTY — MORALLY BANKRUPT HYPOCRITES....

DESPITE Wilson's denunciations of land speculators, members of his own personal staff have been involved in highly profitable land speculation deals. Apart from the legal issues involved and about which writs have been issued, the scandal has exposed the Labour Party as total moral hypocrites.

Involved in the deals principally concerning land at Ince-in-Makerfield near Wigan, were Mr. Anthony Field — a close friend of Mr. Wilson and formerly employed by Wilson in his own private office, and Mr. Field's two sisters — Miss Peggy Field and Mrs. Marcia Williams. Peggy Field was a former secretary to Mr. Wilson's wife, Mary, while Marcia Williams is the Prime Minister's Personal and Political Secretary and a very close personal friend.

Mr. Field, who has an £80,000 luxury home at Blisworth, Northamptonshire, married Margaret Hutchison, secretary of yet another of Wilson's closest friends, Sir Joseph Kagan of the Gannex raincoat firm. Sir Joseph was knighted by Wilson in 1970.

Mrs. Marcia Williams has three homes including two country houses, one of which is up for sale at £39,500. Both houses are two miles from Mr. Wilson's Grange Farm home at Great Missenden. Besides the use of Downing Street and Chequers, Mr. Wilson himself has three homes including the farm.

At the insistence of his legal advisor, Lord Arnold Goodman — chairman of The Observer Trust, Wilson is reported to have decided on "maximum disclosure". When all the facts of this scandal are exposed, however, the question will still remain as to just how much hypocrisy there is in the Labour Party.

EXTREMELY WEALTHY

Attention may be directed towards the extremely wealthy Ian Mikardo, the newly-elected Chairman of the Parliamentary Labour Party. He founded Ian Mikardo Ltd. in 1946 as agents for overseas exporters. It specialised in trade with East Germany and at one time had a near monopoly of such business.

A number of other businessmen who are friends of Harold Wilson got their start in life just after the war. Like Mikardo, they are all East European immigrants who started up trade with Iron Curtain countries when Wilson was President of the Board of Trade from 1947 to 1951.

They include Sigmund Sternberg of the Mountstar Metal Corporation, the millionaire commodity broker Harry Kissin, Montague Meyer — the timber merchant who later 'employed' Wilson for eight years as his parliamentary specialist in East-West trade, and the above mentioned Sir Joseph Kagan whose coats Wilson is famous for wearing.

Healey soaks everybody

IT WAS ANNOUNCED in the budget speech that the Government would borrow $2.500m on the Eurodollar market. This loan is the largest Eurodollar loan ever over the 1972 level. This unprecedented rate of inflation was due largely to the 16 per cent by the new coloured invasion. There is already an acute housing shortage while education and welfare services in immigrant inundated districts are fast sliding into decline. Vast areas of our major cities are being reduced to Afro-Asian slums.

Healey soaks everybody

IT WAS ANNOUNCED in the budget speech that the Government would borrow $2.500m on the Eurodollar market. This 10-year loan is the largest Eurodollar loan ever and the initial rate of interest will be 10.5/8%. Good 'Socialists' can always be relied upon to get us further into debt to international bankers.

Loans such as these are merely an expensive way of buying time, and it is the ordinary people who will have to pay. That is why income tax has gone up by 3p in the £ for everyone paying tax, thus raising the basic rate to 33p. Taxes have also been raised on soft drinks, confectionary, crisps, petrol, beer, spirits, wine and cigarettes. Together with the massive rises in the cost of rates, electricity, rail fares and steel, the ordinary person will be hard hit.

PENSIONERS CHEATED

Although single pensioners will be getting £10 a week and married couples £16 a week, the rise will make very little difference when set against the soaring cost of day-to-day living.

INFLATION

One thing that Healey's budget did not include was any plan to tackle the root cause of inflation. During the first three months of this year the money supply has been expanding at 6¼% or about 25% a year. Less a 3% rate of annual growth, this leaves a figure of 22% which is, of course, the reason for and the rate of inflation.

Though Establishment politicians are engaged in a conspiracy to hide this real cause of inflation from the people — putting the blame on workers and businessmen instead — economic experts know full well what the score is.

A recent supplement on banking in Asia from the Establishment Times stated: "The all-India index of wholesale commodity prices rose by 20 per cent in 1973 over the 1972 level. This unprecedented rate of inflation was due largely to the 16 per cent expansion of money supply during 1973 — a year in which industrial output was virtually stagnant."

Inflation has been a worldwide phenomenon because the extension of the money supply has been a worldwide phenomenon organised by the New York finance houses acting through the American Federal Reserve Board. Much of the new money was used for speculation in futures on the international commodity markets. The profits derived by the banks from this operation were also put into commodities as the international financiers attempted to hedge their bets.

As Wilson's Government is composed of nothing but the tools, lackies and representatives of International Finance, they will never solve our economic problems. By not taking on the real promoters of inflation the 'Socialists', like the Tories, will also be forced to find a scapegoat amongst the general population.

Many aspects of immigration are, to say the least, distasteful to the native British population. Our anger, however, should not be directed towards immigrants but to the politicians who allowed or encouraged the problem. Race hatred is counter-productive and no sympathy can be extended to those who incite it.

Hypocrisy

The Labour Party have been caught with their pants down. This does not mean to say that the Conservative or Liberal Parties are any better. In the case of Reginald Maudling the Tories had a Home Secretary and very nearly a Prime Minister who was connected with Poulson, while in the form of Jeremy Thorpe the Liberals had a leader who was denouncing boardroom bandits while being a Director of a usury firm, London and County Securities, which was charging exorbitant rates of interest.

The All-party Think Tank

Though the label of the party in Government has changed, the Central Policy Review Staff or 'Think Tank' is to live on. This body was set up by Heath under the Chairmanship of the 'Socialist' peer and head of the British section of an international banking tribe — Lord Rothschild.

To the uninitiated Socialism and Finance Capitalism are, like the Labour and Tory parties, diametrically opposed. This, however, is wrong for both are controlled by the same people and both are being used to dragoon us into a world monopoly of political and economic power.

This not only explains how a Rothschild can be a

Equality before the law

GAOL SENTENCES of three years each were passed on three black youths for their part in last Summer's fairground riot at Brockwell Park, South London. The youths were amongst a crowd of 300 who pelted three policemen with bottles. One of the police officers has since had to be invalided out of the force because of the serious injuries he sustained.

A defence witness testified that the sentences would exacerbate racial tension in South London. Judge Abdela Q.C. declared, however: "Am I expected to deal more leniently with him because he is black? That would be racialism in reverse.

Judge Abdela's impartiality is not shared by all his colleagues. The following day in another Old Bailey court, Judge Grant Q.C. sentenced a 20-year-old coloured girl to three years for pouring boiling fat over a coloured neighbour. He said that the sentence might have been heavier had she been a white girl.

From the time when Lord Salmon gave exceptionally harsh sentences to white youths involved in the Notting Hill race riots, to the recent case where a Northern Ireland judge sentenced a soldier to three years for manslaughter while giving only four years to an IRA murderer, there have been instances of anti-British double standards with an over-weening tendency to pander to minorities.

APPEASEMENT

Those endowed with this appeasement policy draw support for their beliefs from comments such as that made by Mr. Arif Ali, Editor of West Indian World, who — referring to the Brockwell Park case — said: "If this sort of sentence continues to be handed out to young West Indians and black people in this country I am sure our people will retaliate and there will be bloodshed in the streets."

"LIBERAL"

That the 'liberal' answer is wrong, however, is something that anyone with any common sense can see. The fact that karate lessons in London are, according to Ted Ward (London organiser for PROP — the prisoners' union), "packed out with blacks"; or that, according to the Willesden & Brent Chronicle, "Gangs of coloured youths — some armed with guns — are on the

Get Britain Out

Arguments over the level of funds, their allocation and other such terms relating to the workings of the Common Market are sheer trivia when compared with the really important question of British membership itself.

The Common Market is designed not only to result in total economic interdependence — but in a total monopoly of economic ownership and control. This would inevitably deprive Britain of the natural resources — such as coal, gas and oil — which we do have. In a world plagued by ever-increasing shortages we will be deprived of our few hopes for survival.

Only outside the Common Market will we be free to exploit our own national resources for the benefit of our own people.

We cannot seriously believe that the Labour Government will ever take Britain out of the E.E.C. To prove our point, however, and to show that the National Front is the only political party that is genuinely opposed to British membership, it is necessary to maintain a sustained campaign in favour of withdrawal.

By use of posters, leaflets and other organs of propaganda we must publicise our case both to the public at large as well as to bodies such as trades unions and

If tough sentences can be handed out to whites then they ought to be handed out to immigrants too.

PRO-BLACK REDS ATTACK WHITE WORKERS

THE International Marxist Group is disgusted with the racist attitude of British trades unionists. Having totally failed to gain a power base amongst white workers, the IMG is now mounting a campaign against the trades unions in the hope of attracting coloured supporters.

A recent issue of the IMG newspaper Red Weekly (29.3.74), carried articles attacking the hostility of white workers to the strike by Asians at Coventry Art Castings in Nuneaton and at the Mansfield Hosiery Mills in Loughborough. The paper advocated that: "Black workers' caucuses should be formed in the unions to ensure that their particular interests are not ignored . . ." It continued: "A national network of such caucuses would make it possible for black workers elsewhere to organise support for struggles like that at Art Castings. If necessary they could enforce blacking by bringing plants to a standstill where white workers refused to respond to the appeals of the strikers."

BLACK INFILTRATION

These plans echo an earlier article in an issue of the black power newspaper Grass Roots. The article said that: "The black workers must form a Black Workers Union purely along racial lines to fight against racial discrimination in employ-weakness in dealing with it.

If tough sentences can be handed out to whites then they ought to be handed out to immigrants too.

Should such caucuses be set up with support from the IMG and other similar groups, they could pose a serious threat to the freedom of action, solidarity and bargaining strength of white workers. The only consolation is that such groups would wake up more and more people to the fact that the political 'Left' allows itself to be used as the tool of the international monopoly capitalists.

LONDON BOROUGH COUNCIL ELECTIONS

The chance to vote for a REAL change

AS THE London Borough Council Elections come round again many voters will be moaning that we have to face yet another election. Many will not vote at all. Others will vote for the same old parties of careerist politicians who have betrayed us, lied to us and neglected us for years. Nothing will change and the moaning will go on.

Have voters a right to moan, however, when they just sit at home and do nothing or meekly give their mandate to someone who has already failed them or in whom they have little confidence?

Some people not only found themselves fed up with the way things were run by the Establishment parties, but actually decided to do something about it. They joined the National Front and because of their determination to make democracy work by actually involving themselves in its processes, many other people now have a chance to vote National Front and thereby promote a radically new alternative.

GET THE PRIORITIES RIGHT

Because of the last Government's mismanagement of the economy £1,200 million was slashed from local authority spending, and this was a major cause of the massive rate increases which Londoners have recently suffered. With the worsening national economic situation local authorities may be forced to raise the rates again or make cuts.

The National Front says cut waste by ending schemes for pre-tentious municipal buildings and grants to property speculators. Put

EDUCATION

The Labour Party wants to impose a uniform educational system on all areas. The National Front, however, says that local people should have a democratic choice as to how their children are educated.

There have been many disturbing examples of late of Marxist, multi-racial and pro-Common Market propaganda being disseminated in schools under the guise of liberal and religious studies. This is the hallmark of a totalitarian state. An investigation of school curricula must be undertaken. Children not what to think.

The National Front advocates that in the allocation of school places, children from native British backgrounds must have absolute priority over those from the immigrant communities.

LAW AND ORDER

As gangs of teenage muggers roam the streets, the racial element in the rise of violent crime cannot be hidden any longer.

The National Front supports the repatriation of all coloured immigrants who have entered Britain since the passing of the British Nationality Act in 1948 as a solution to this and many other problems.

DEVELOPMENT

Development policy is an important factor in the quality of urban life, yet the need for overall planning does not seem to have been grasped. Private developers are allowed to erect useless office blocks, while many council redevelopment schemes produce hideous and soulless monstrosities.

Dockland development, which affects six London boroughs, must — like the other local schemes — be directed towards the interests of local people. This means providing housing and amenities at reasonable that ordinary people cannot afford.

The National Front believes, as a patriotic party that takes pride in our national heritage, that much more must be done to protect the environment against the vested private interests that seem to have so much influence over local authorities at present. The National Front demands an end to property speculation and strict control of land use.

TRANSPORT

In order to avoid paying proper wages London Transport and other authorities brought in immigrant labour. Now even the immigrants will not do the jobs. And so for the sake of short term economic cheapskating we have had a terrible social problem foisted upon us. Better wages should have been paid originally and they will have to be paid now if London's transport system is not to collapse.

In the longterm, however, it would seem beneficial to encourage the exodus from London so that there are less people wanting to use its transport systems. The other parties have only played with the idea of regional aid.

The National Front believes that real and effective measures must be taken in order to bring all the areas of the United Kingdom into parity and thus to release the pressure on

Accrington: freedom of the city — for convicted criminals

WE ARE accustomed to the wildest idiocies from 'liberals' in this country, but in Accrington they have really excelled themselves. At the instigation of one R. M. Lee, Principal Probation Officer for the area, and another Mr. T. I. Jeremiah, Chairman of the Committee for Lancashire Probation and After Care, a residential house in the centre of the town is to be purchased and turned into a hostel for convicted criminals between the ages of 20 and 40.

It has been admitted that these criminals could be convicted of any offences including arson or rape, and yet they are to be given the choice of going to the prison or the hostel. Whilst in this house, with lounge, colour T.V. and all mod cons, they will be found work in the town or — if they prefer — may find their own work. In their free time they will be allowed to go wherever they wish — into local pubs, cinemas and parks — so long as they return to the hostel by

HOUSING

Far too much of the rates you have to cough up goes towards high interest payments on loans used to build houses.

The National Front advocates the creation of municipal banks to finance council house building. The resulting savings could be used to reduce rents as well as rates.

The National Front demands that in the allocation of available council houses native British people should have absolute priority over coloured immigrants.

SOCIAL WELFARE

The National Front is committed to a policy of social justice and acknowledges as an absolute public obligation the need to provide adequately for the very young, the very old, the sick and the disabled in terms of accommodation, food, clothing, warmth, health and hygiene services.

The National Front rejects the reactionary Tory objections to the welfare state, but it also rejects the bureaucratic Socialist idea that public authorities should run our lives. Unless they are in need of help people should be left alone.

LOCAL CANDIDATES DENOUNCE COUNCIL INDEBTEDNESS

Right: Robin May and his wife Shirley

ROBIN MAY and Roy Painter, who are standing as National Front candidates in the Central Hornsey and Central Tottenham Wards in this year's Borough Council Elections, are heading a campaign about the finances of Haringey Council.

In the financial year 1973/4 £16,300,000 was raised from ratepayers, while in the same period £8,300,000 was spent on interest payments. "This is a sheer financial racket," stated Robin May. "The Council is plunging into ever greater indebtedness and it is the ratepayer that has to foot the bill for servicing the debt. It is absolutely ridiculous that a figure of over half the amount that is raised through rates should be spent in this manner."

LITTLE CONSOLATION

At a meeting of an Action Committee to prevent this hostel being established it was agreed that the prisoners could revert to type and commit offences. That they would be careful to commit crime well away from the hostel might be some small comfort for those people living adjacent to the house, but it is little consolation for the people who live in the rest of the town.

Despite a campaign in the press and despite the fact that the two officials referred to above said that the scheme could only operate with the approval of the residents in the area, they have ignored all protests including a petition with over five thousand signatures.

DETERMINED

The National Front in Accrington are involved in fighting the scheme. The NF's District Council candidate for the area, Mr. Westell, is on the Action Committee. The NF is determined that local officialdom shall not be allowed to foist its crazy ideas on the community.

Despite a campaign in the press and despite the fact that the two officials referred to above said that the scheme could only operate with the approval of the residents in the area, they have ignored all protests including a petition with over five thousand signatures.

DETERMINED

The National Front in Accrington are involved in fighting the scheme. The NF's District Council candidate for the area, Mr. Westell, is on the Action Committee. The NF is determined that local officialdom shall not be allowed to foist its crazy ideas on the community.

BOOK REVIEW

SHOCK, GASP, HORROR!

*PASSPORTS AND POLITICS is an account of the Ugandan Asian invasion of Britain in the late Summer and Autumn of 1972. Written by two 'liberal' internationalists of the Race Relations Industry it is nevertheless an interesting, useful and at times amusing book.

The Ugandan influx caused the greatest polarization on the racial issue since Enoch Powell's famous speech. Though Councillor Robert Atkins of Hornsey, speaking at the Conservative Party Conference in October, welcomed the Asians because they were: "independent, educated and, for the most part, professional — the very stuff of which Tory votes are made," porters at Stansted Airport refused to handle the Asian's baggage while many cab drivers also proved uncooperative.

Interesting sidelights include examples of the absolute humbug of Establishment politicians. Harold Wilson, for example, said that Amin should have been removed by force by the British Government when he took over. "I wish they had never let that mentally unbalanced paranoid stage his military coup without a show of naval force by Britain." Wilson's enthusiasm for neo-colonialist fantasies caused him to overlook the fact that Uganda is a landlocked country 900 miles from the Indian Ocean!

The Ugandan Asian affair was, of course, a major opening for the National Front — a point which the writers do not fail to note. The angry reaction of the British people found spontaneous expression in a stream of letters to the press. Most of the large demonstrations, however, were organised by the National Front which lent a ready made structure through which the people could organise to fight back against the ruling Establishment.

One of the lighter aspects of the business was the rumours and hoaxes that abounded. One letter that achieved wide circulation purported to come from the Department of the Environment and supposedly ordered the recipient to prepare for the arrival of six Ugandan Asians that were to be compulsorily billeted in his house! The letter included instructions to lay out prayer mats facing Mecca, and provide meals consisting of rice, chapattis, mangoes, yams and curry powder of "extra hot high Madras quality."

Whether reaction was channelled into humour or somewhat stronger feelings, the writers leave us in no doubt that not only are the British people possessed of implicitly racist notions, but that they are beginning to wake up in ever increasing numbers to the planned destruction of their country. The Establishment has been forced to be a lot less blatant about its importation of aliens.

NATIONAL FRONT STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION

NF students refuse to be intimidated

by DAVE McCALDEN

BRITAIN'S universities took yet another lurch towards totalitarianism this April when the National Union of Students conference at Liverpool voted by five to one to deny freedom of speech to the National Front and other "Fascist and racist" (sic) groups. Steve Parry, a Communist member of the NUS executive was given a standing ovation by the 1,300 delegates for his impassioned proposing speech. Mr. Parry suggested "mass mobilisation to ensure that Fascists (sic) do not have platforms to speak on."

Another speaker in support of the motion, Mr. Howard Feather, an International Socialist from Enfield Polytechnic, went even further: "Fascists (sic) should be totally driven out of the colleges and off the streets. You do not debate with the Vorsters and Tyndalls — you pulverise them."

The NUS is, of course, only giving official approval to a practice that is already well established in most of our big colleges and universities. Trotskyite and Communist thugs regularly attack students who dare to challenge their naive, Establishment views on race and internationalism.

The National Front Students' Association refuses to be intimidated by the thugs of the ultra-Left, however, and has staged several very successful activities in the London area recently. On Saturday, March 16, over fifty activists demonstrated against the Anti-Apartheid Movement's picket of the England-Wales rugby match at Twickenham. NFSA leaflets exposing Peter Hain's background were distributed and the event achieved widespread national and even international publicity.

The following week a dozen the National Front presence became known the audience erupted in aghast horror. Demands were made that the NF members be immediately thrown out.

Michael Duane — Marxist headmaster of Rivinghill fame, and several other members of the audience argued that the NF should be allowed to speak. Eventually this view prevailed and I was able to ask a question. There were more hysterical ravings from members of the audience, however, and IMG member Stuart Madewell proposed that we should be asked to leave, and if we refused, should be physically ejected. A renewed wave of horror reverberated around the hall when someone gasped: "But how many more of them are in here . . . ?" Drawn Leftist faces grayed by several degrees as all around the hall 'fascists' stood up to leave.

The activity was a resounding success and showed how our mere presence at Leftist conferences can disrupt proceedings as Liberals and Marxists argue amongst themselves.

DAVE McCALDEN

Dave McCalden has recently taken over as National Secretary of the National Front Students' Association. He is a student at Goldsmiths' College and founder and joint-editor of Right On! a satirical magazine produced in support of Goldsmiths' College British Nationalist Society.

SPARK

Owing to the large bulk of other literature which the NFSA is planning to distribute, production of Spark has been temporarily postponed. Three types of leaflets will soon be available, one for schools and two for university-type institutions. These are priced at £1 per thousand plus 27p postage.

BRITAIN FIRST APPEAL FUND

BRITAIN FIRST has launched an Appeal Fund in order to pay for the free distribution of extra copies.

We would like you to buy BRITAIN FIRST and resell it. If, however, you cannot do this but would nevertheless like to help us to promote it, then why not send us a donation?

For every £1 received we will distribute 50 copies to members of the general public.

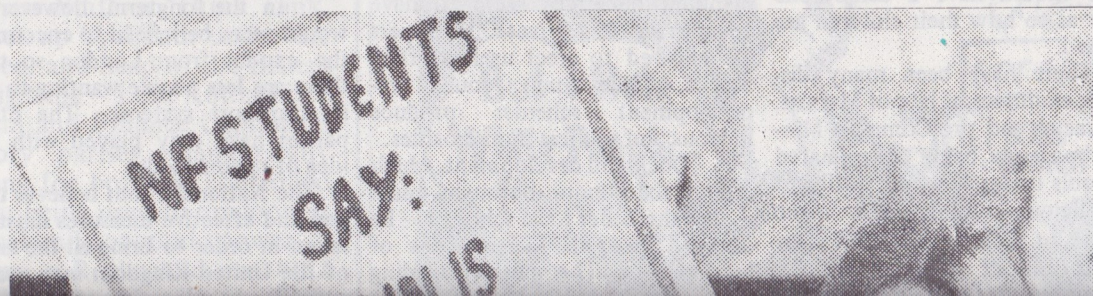

Contributions should be addressed to BRITAIN FIRST, c/o 50 Pawsons Road, Croydon, Surrey, CRO 2QF.

NATIONALIST BADGES

Humorous publicity badges inscribed 'NATIONAL FRONT RULES O.K.' will prove very popular with younger members. NF units can make a handsome profit by buying and reselling these badges. They are available in multiples of 50 only at £2.50 (includes postage). Cheques/P.O.s to Mr. D. McCalden, c/o 50 Pawsons Road, Croydon, Surrey, CRO 2QF.

STUDENTS!

All NF members who are full-time or part-time students at schools, colleges or universities and who have not yet registered with the National Front Students' Association, are asked to do so immediately. No extra

BOVVER BOLSHY

Howard Feather, International Socialist from Enfield Poly., thinks that NF students should be given the same official approval as the ultra-Left.

CONFERENCE

At the end of March NF student activists attended a conference at the Polytechnic of Central London organised by the Campaign on Racism, I.Q. and the Class Society. The conference was the beginning of a campaign to "expose scientific racialists" like Eysenck, Jensen and Shockley. As soon as

Trotsky's lying

A NUMBER of your correspondents correctly exposing Trotskyist lying have failed to make a Marxist analysis of the class roots of this mendacity.

From 1923 the Soviet Communist Party correctly condemned Trotsky's opposition as a petty bourgeois deviation, reflecting the pressure of non-proletarian class forces on the party in backward, isolated and predominantly peasant Russia.

Lacking any basis among the working class or the broad masses, Trotskyist propaganda relied on a kind of Bonapartist build-up of the cult of their leader, to which the vain Trotsky showed no reluctance to contribute.

The big obstacle to this build-up was the truth about Trotsky's whole role in the struggle against Bolshevism before the revolution when he acted as a thoroughly "petty bourgeois revolutionist" as he himself was to admit (but not until 1940). Hence we see the objective basis from which sprang the kind of lying with which everyone acquainted with the Trotskyist sects (which are both ideologically and mostly sociologically petty bourgeois) is all too familiar.
